I. Business

a. Goals

Goal 1: Increase Membership and Participation

- Membership Drive
 - Flyers
 - Member to Member recruiting

Goal 2: Hold More Events (Social and Community Engagement)

- Neighborhood School Walk-Through
- Halloween Parade
- Brainstorm ideas:
 - Trivia night at school?
 - Rep Berliner as speaker? Joint event with Huntington Terrace
 - Bethesda speakers event?
 - Email with survey will be sent out to gauge community interest and gather additional ideas

Goal 3: Take collaborative action on traffic and safety issues

- Traffic and Safety Committee
 - Interest raised about the status of follow up from the county for a traffic plan from the walk-through. It would also be good to get the speed study scheduled now that school is back in session.
- Safe Routes to School Update
 - Initial project is 3/4th completed
 - Safe Routes to School will be separated from the Traffic Committee

- Look into the “Safe Home” initiative where homes in the community can become a safe place for children to go to in an emergency, if lost, etc.

b. Beautification Committee

- Jed talked with Bill Primosch, head of Beautification committee. He’s going to look into matching grant program and tree planting program by the county.

c. Other Business

- Board elections in January:
 - Half of Board positions are to be opened
 - Vice President, Treasurer and one at-large position

Meeting adjourned at 8:22 p.m.
